BONDVILLE.

A. K. Burbank, probably the best known citizen of this town, died Saturday, Aug. 4, after an illness of eight days. The funeral was held at the church Monday, and the crowded house and many tearful eyes showed the esteem in which he was held. All his children were present except Mrs. Duane, who was detained at her home by the illness of her little daughter. Rev. E. R. Currier officiated and Rev. C. M. Chariton of Perkinsville, a former pastor, said a few words also. Both spoke tenderly of the many noble qualities of Mr. Burbank; of his steadfast faith and loyalty to the church, and constant attend-ance on its services. Many relatives and friends from out of town were present, and England Organ company's works in Bos- the floral offerings were very beautiful and appropriate.
